

Universities.AC was established in order to create the ultimate database solution for worldwide universities. Most of us, and the people who established the site, were students or will be. We have experienced the life and the needs of a student, foreign students, away from home, for a long period of time. Universities.AC has the most important features to serve the students and the potential students.

Universities.AC Database contains information about the education system of countries, together with details of credential (qualifications), and higher education institutions. The information is organized in three areas:

Education system

Information about a country's educational structures, its admission requirements, its recognition of foreign credentials and about student life, finances and national bodies.

Credentials (qualifications)

Detailed information about credentials, their level, details of examinations, certificates and the grading system.

Institutions

Information on Higher Education Institutions including details about their academic divisions, the degrees and diplomas they offer, Location and classification, General Details, Facilities, Statistics and more.
